[INTRO TO THE WORD]

Now ... the homecoming week started off a bang for the seniors as they beat the juniors in powderpuff by 22 points.

Let's see how the players were preparing... or not preparing... for their big game. Here's Karla Barajas with more in your "Word around Campus."

[THE WORD]

UP FIRST, Senior Carly Snell SHARED THIS ON ... Snapchat WITH THE HASHTAG WHSUNLEASHED.

In this picture Carly is with seniors Maddy Cortez, Cassis Roland, and Ashley Blume. The girls got ready for powderpuff practice last week, but it was cancelled due to the thunderstorms. Carly said that no one told them about the cancelled practice ... but, it seems the girls didn't need the it anyway.

AND THIS WEEK WE ASKED YOU to tell us about one of your greatest accomplishments to go along with our story about a gymnast USING THE HASHTAG WHSUNLEASHED.

Senior Kiera Utush said her greatest accomplishment was committing to SDSU last year to play D1 soccer. In this picture Kiera is wearing a SDSU hat with a big smile on her face. Kiera says she is so excited to become an Aztec.

NOW, we went on twitter to find out WHAT'S TRENDING... and this digital art will have you thinking that everything around you is real.

The Moro Digital Art Museum in Tokyo uses lights and motion from a projector to create digital worlds. The artwork moves freely throughout the room and even switches to pastel colors when a person walks further into the exhibit. The digital art is controlled by 520 computers that send out signals for the art to move.

And ... People who have attended the art museum in Japan say you definitely have to add this destination to your bucket list.
