And ... ready ... set ... go ... the City of Rocklin is hosting a sunset run tomorrow.

I'm BETHANY OH...

And I'm SARAH NEVINS...

Today is November 2nd...

And UNLEASHED begins... NOW.

[A4 - INTRO_NEWS_TEACHER MONTH]

Good morning Wildcats. The leadership team would like to congratulate the October teacher of the month.

The October teacher of the month is Leah Seabrook.

Ms. Seabrook teaches AP World History and Dual Enrollment US History.

She is in her second year teaching social sciences here at Whitney and taught for several years in a middle school.

[A6 - NEWS_X FACTOR APP]

The fall sports season is wrapping up and that means it is time to cash in your X-Factor points for prizes.

All season, you have been checking in to athletic events and earning points. Now, the student store has prizes for your points. Here are the rewards. If you have 50 points, you can pick up a Wildcat temporary tattoo. If you earned 100 points, you can get a free lanyard. And if you have 200 points, you can cash them in for a front of the line lunch pass for five days.

And here are some more free prizes. If you have 200 points, you earned a Whitney Pop Socket, and 300 points gets you an X-Factor t-shirt. Again, all you have to do is come to the student store, with the app on your phone, and pick your prize. Points are reset at the start of the winter sports season.

[A8 - NEWS_FAFSA]

The counselors are hosting a FAFSA workshop to get you ready to apply for financial aid. All seniors are welcome to attend. The workshop is Tuesday, during intervention, and counselors will cover grants, scholarships, loans, and the FAFSA application process.

[A8 - NEWS_JROTC]

And ... The JROTC drill team were the overall champions at the 29th annual Titan Invitational drill meet, last Saturday.

At the meet, there are six categories. The Whitney team earned first place in five categories and second in another. Also, the Armed Team earned 1st place in a non-sweepstakes event, Armed Exhibition. And two cadets won 1st and 2nd place out of 110 cadets in the Armed Drill Down competition.

[A10 - NEWS_GIVING TREE]

Leadership is hosting a giving tree event tonight at the Rocklin Parks and Recreational building. The event starts at 5:00 pm. Lets send it over to reporter Autumn Abercrombie who is with The Voice of Whitney, Marin Bauer, to tell us more about the fundraiser. Autumn..

[A11 - NEWS_FEATURE PACKAGE]

People love their chocolate, but creating friendships is the most important ingredient to the owners of a small shop in Lincoln. Reporter Leah Deutch and photographer Marisa Romero went to Blabbermouth Chocolates to see how this family owned business will make your mouth water.

[A13 - INTRO TO THE WORD]

Now ... many teams have been having their senior night in order to recognize all the seniors who are playing their last games as wildcats.

These nights are not only sad for the players, but also for everyone who helps out the teams. Here's Julia Ruccione with more in your... "Word around Campus."

[A14 - THE WORD]

UP FIRST, Junior Justin Hampton SHARED THIS ON ... INSTAGRAM WITH THE HASHTAG WHSUNLEASHED.

In this picture, Justin is with senior Robert Jones after the home football game against Grant. Justin said even though the season didn't go the way they wanted it to, he loved being the team manager and watching the players grow over the past 3 years. Justin will miss the seniors and the memories they made, but he is looking forward to being the team manager again next year.

AND THIS WEEK WE ASKED YOU to tell us about a family member you rely on, ... USING THE HASHTAG WHSUNLEASHED.

Freshman Juliana Seltzer said that she relies on her older brother Spencer. In this picture, Juliana is hugging Spencer in front of a floral backdrop. She said that he always finds a way to make her smile, and has her back whenever times are difficult.

NOW, we went on twitter to find out WHAT'S TRENDING...and there are no tricks here, just plenty of treats.

NATPOP WAIT FOR WHITE FLASH

If you relate to this guy and don't like your candy from Wednesday night... this is the machine for you. Reese's has created a Halloween candy converter in New York City. You can put any candy you don't like into the machine, and Reese's peanut butter cups will drop out. Reese's says that 90 percent of Americans wish they could trade their Halloween candy, and they hope that this is a solution.

[A15 - OUT WORD_BE RIGHT BACK]

And some people are joking that they need this machine in their house year round.
